DEDICATION

In appreciation and gratitude, we, the Annual Staff of North Canton High School, dedicate this annual to our friend and advisor, Mr. A. J. Schneider.

Mr. Schneider took over our class at the beginning of the last two years of our school careers and steered us safely through the many turbulent waters we encountered.

"A SENIOR'S MEMOIRS"

With grateful hearts and a lingering sigh
We are leaving dear old No Ca Hi.
Leaving the countless friends we've made
In memories that will never fade.

We tried to be faithful, do our parts
Loyalty filled each one of our hearts.
A shade of regret, a hint of tears
Will serve as an end to our high school years.

We will miss the friendly atmosphere
The rooms, the seats, that have been so dear.
The teachers, the friends that have helped us out
And eased our minds when we were in doubt.

In saying farewell to this dear old school
I would like to quote the golden rule:
If you do unto others as you've done us
You will always have our faith and trust.

—Margaret Shaub.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Dear Seniors:

As our last year in high school draws to a close, it is only fitting and proper that we should pause a moment and recall the things that made our stay here in North Canton High interesting and enjoyable.

We owe much of our success financially, as well as scholastically, to the efforts of our advisor, Mr. Schneider, who kindly gave his time and helpful advice in our business ventures and in our social activities.

We have witnessed a great change. While yet freshmen we felt the influx of self government, for the Student Council was organized that year. We have experienced a change in school management and have learned a new meaning of Democracy. We have seen the No-Ca-Hi Lights grow and have come to realize that its contribution to the school is of no little worth. We have thrilled to the triumphs of our athletic teams and point with pride and joy to our championship trophies. In scholarship we have been outstanding. Many of our group are members of the National Honor Society. Our records for the annual scholarship contest at Canton Twp. are envied by many.

We have had good times! The Sophomores generously initiated us, and we did likewise to the struggling Freshmen. As salesmen we have no equal. We have no doubt contributed much to the dentists' prosperity by our Junior candy concession. We set a new high with our ice cream sales at the county tournament in '40. We made the Christmas of '40 duly sweet by the sale of Christmas candy. We helped to provide high class entertainment for the people of our town by selling, in our Junior year, tickets to the Entertainment Festival at the Community Building. We have raised the standard of reading by bringing good magazines within the reach of all.

We have purchased rings and pins as a token to keep alive the memory of our school, and we have, as Seniors, left as a token of our appreciation some shrubbery to beautify the surroundings.

To Mr. Miller and Mr. Franz goes much of the credit for the production of our theatrical attempts. Both our Junior play, "The Missing Witness," and our Senior play, Thornton Wilder's unusual "Our Town," leave high marks of theatrical excellence for future groups to strive for.

The extravagance of our banquet for the class of '40 will never be forgotten, and we wish to thank the Juniors for their most wonderful entertainment for us.

We, the class of '41, step out into a world filled with bloodshed and hatred. Upon our shoulders and upon the shoulders of thousands like us rests the future of our great nation.

May we thank God for the liberties we enjoy, and resolve in our hearts to keep Old Glory, with all the things she stands for, flying for ever and ever.

You have been our friends and I am

Yours,

RALPH SAYLOR.

CLASS WILL

On leaving dear No Ca Hi we, of the Senior Class, lovingly bequeath the following to our underclass mates:

Rich Waltenbaugh's way with Canton girls to Carl Peterson.

Bob Sommer's "Empire State Building" physique to Gene Shook.

Max Rohrer's position as manager to Bill Cossaboom.

Dale Holl's ability to sleep in class to all other bored students.

Charlie Hoare's wave to Bob Smiley.

Jack Weinhart's ability for not catching on to jokes to Dick Claypool.

Georgia Givler's calm attitude to Marilyn Bowman.

Junior McCue's haircut to the Schug twins.

Jean Bennett's red hair to Bob Allen.

Marian and Dick's technique of patching arguments successfully to Bill and Dorothy.

Mary Allen's "Cobina" accent to Viola Gross.

Lawrence Bishop's way of getting along with one girl to Dan Howes.

Charles King does not will Jean to anyone.

Don Olson's way with "out of city girls" to Bob Healy.

Herb Hess's "Ford" to any millionaire who can keep it in gas and oil.

Tom Schick's football ability to Earl Grant.

Jack Willaman's puns to Lester Schario.

Ralph Vogt's extra shirt to Ray Sherman.

Ralph Saylor's knowledge of Physics to Zane Schlemmer.

Ladene Robert's "very smart" French book to Evelyn Metzger.

Jay Kauffman's ability to "sneak up" on parked cars to Handy Wolf.

Wilma Earley's way of getting a certain "reserve basketball letter" to Marilyn Muse.

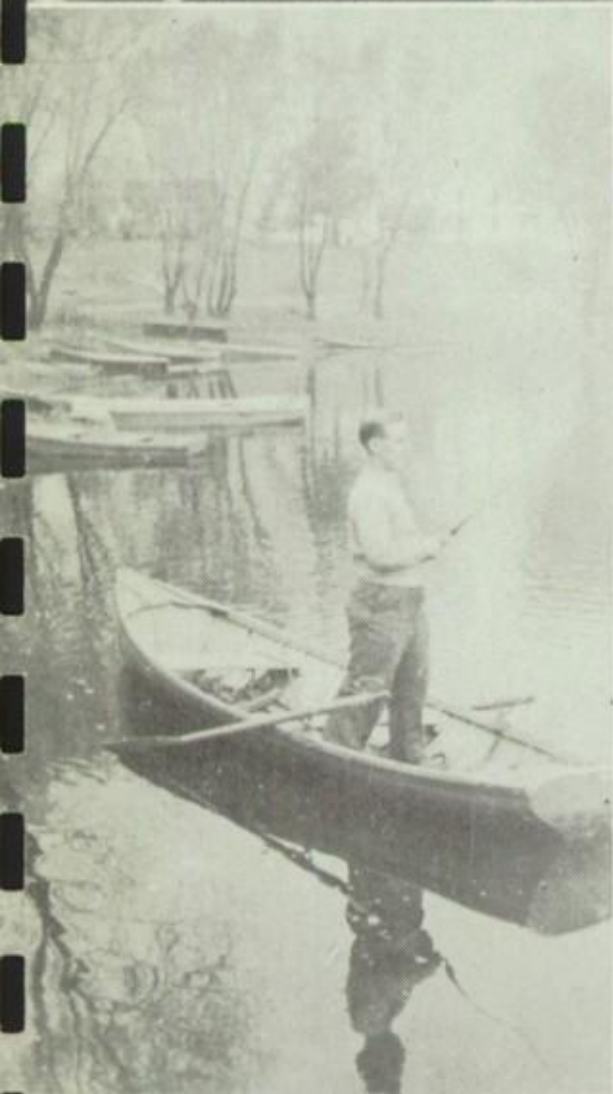

Frank Wise's driving skill to Hal Workman.

Nancy Dillin's excuses for being absent on the first day of any snow to Minnie Schreckengost.

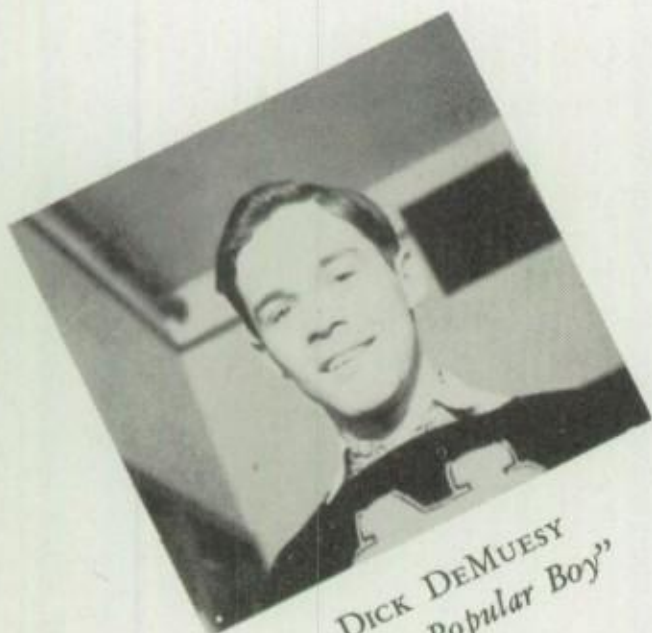

Mary Warburton's small stature to Dorene Bricker.

To the School the Seniors leave a group of shrubbery that is already planted.

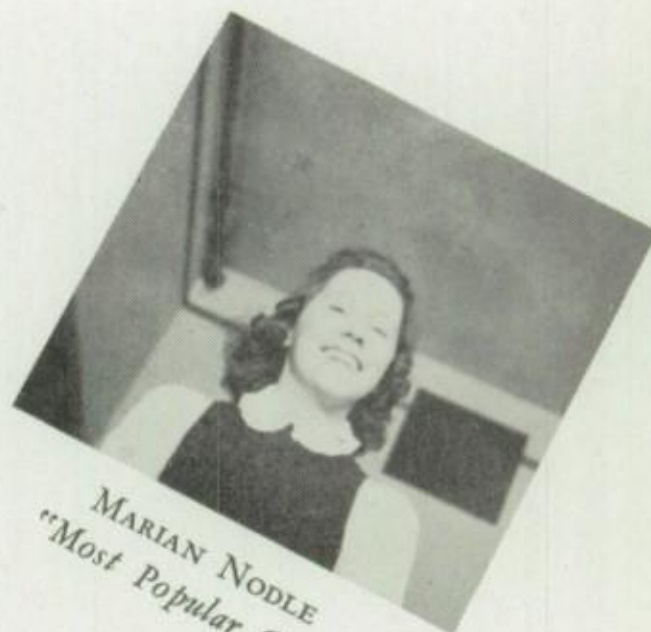

To the Junior Class we lovingly bequeath room 304 without any Sophomores (we hope) and the front seats in the auditorium. Also a row boat for all future students who have to come down the walks.

DRAMATIC CLUB PLAY

"NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH"

To Mr. Clarke Miller and a versatile hard-working cast goes the credit of producing one of the most enjoyable "Dramatic Club" plays ever featured on the North Canton stage. "Nothing but the Truth" was a comedy set in a broker's office and home. A whirlwind of entanglements, including a wager that Bob Bennett, the junior partner, could not tell the truth for twenty-four hours, was brought to a climax when Bob won the bet, money, and the girl. Not only were the main roles handled magnificently but the supporting parts were enacted with that finesse which tells the difference between a bad play and a good one. Yes, "Nothing but the Truth" was definitely a success.

Directors Mr. Miller, Mr. Franz
Student Director Reta Reigle

SENIOR PLAY

"OUR TOWN"

Since I am the Stage Manager they have asked me to tell you the story of "Our Town."

"Our Town" is a typical New England village. Its name is Grover's Corners, and the people who live here are not unlike all small town people of the early nineteen hundreds.

Two of the prominent men of "Our Town," Dr. Gibbs and Editor Webb of the Sentinel, live next to each other on Main Street.

Dr. Gibbs' son, George, and Mr. Webb's daughter, Emily, while they were in their last year of high school, found themselves quite attached to each other.

The afternoon they discovered this mutual attraction, George decided he would not go to the college, but planned to settle down on his uncle's farm after he had graduated from high school.

This love affair proceeded very nicely for about a year, after which they had a simple wedding in Grover's Corners' Congregational Church.

Their married life was cut short when Emily died. She was taken to the little cemetery on the hill where most of the people who die in Grover's Corners, are buried.

Here she found many of her friends who had passed on before her. Emily asked if she might go back and live once again her twelfth birthday.

Her request was granted, but she not only lived again, she also saw herself living. This proved to be a very unhappy experience, seeing and realizing how much emphasis was put on the trivial things in life, hardly taking time to look at each other.

So Emily returned to her place on the hill, just in time to see George bringing some flowers to decorate the new grave.

JUNIOR PLAY

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN"

The play takes place in an old Kentucky plantation home.

When George Harris learns that Mr. Shelby, his owner, must sell his slaves, he tells his wife of his plan to escape. Several days later his wife and child also escape chased by some slave buyers. She runs toward the Ohio River and seeing it blocked with cakes of ice she jumps across reaching the other side safely.

St. Clare, his daughter Eva, and his cousin Ophelia return home from Vermont, bringing with them an old slave, Uncle Tom, who saved Eva from drowning. Eva becomes very attached to Tom and when she dies asks St. Clare to free him. But St. Clare is shot, having neglected to sign Tom's freedom papers.

Tom is then sold to the villainous Simon Legree. He whips Uncle Tom to death for refusing to do the evil things he tells him to do. As Tom is dying Legree is arrested for the killing of St. Clare. He resists and is shot. Mr. Shelby comes back for Tom.

Directors—Mr. Miller, Mr. Nagel.

IN APPRECIATION

On behalf of the musical organizations and the entire student body, we wish to extend a sincere appreciation to Mr. Hammond, who gave his utmost in every task he undertook. He has made possible a long-sought project in North Canton — the Vikings Band. He has also given other musical organizations inspiration to do bigger and better things for North Canton High. We wish him the best of success in his new venture.
